

LANCE THOMAS ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

In 1994, the NOTFEA Board of Directors decided to honor Lance Thomas by creating a yearly award in his name. Lance worked for the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration as an odometer investigator until his retirement. His dedication to the work of combating odometer and title fraud is the fabric legends are made of. Lance passed away June 1997.

Now is your chance to honor another NOTFEA member for their work in the area of odometer and title fraud. Please take a few minutes to consider who should receive this year's "Lance Thomas Achievement Award" to be presented at this year's NOTFEA Conference.

Please return this form by July 2nd, 2009 with your nomination to:
